Local Happenings

Get Sage Hens.

Dr. Fred Westerfield, Bert Palm, W. G. Hunter and Charles Patrick hunted sage hens in Dry Prairie yesterday. They report good luck.

Saw Game.

O. W. Eagle and Joe Ball of Fort Klamath were here yesterday to see the bull game.

Miss French Returns.

Miss Restora French, who has resided in Los Angeles for the last two years, returned last night, and expects to remain here. She formerly taught in the local grammar schools.

Here From Crescent.

E. G. Bourke, a merchant of Crescent, spent Sunday in Klamath Falls on business.

Cattle Buyer Here.

J. B. Mitchell and wife are here from Treha. Mr. Mitchell and his father J. C. Mitchell, buy thousands of head cattle in Klamath county every fall.

From Klamath Agency.

C. S. Minor and wife of Klamath Agency spent Sunday in Klamath Falls.

Farmer Visits.

Allan Stansbie, a farmer of the Orinda district, attended to business matters in the county seat today.

Many on Excursion.

About seventy-five people enjoyed the excursion on Upper Klamath Lake given yesterday by Calkins and Hamilton. The gasoline launches Spray, Curlew and Oakland were used.

Saw Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bean and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Copeland motored to Crater Lake yesterday. All of the party went down to the water.

Here From Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fleischacker are down today from Harriman Lodge on business.

Leaves for School.

Lawrence Sanderson, son of Mrs. F. T. Sanderson, left this morning for Portland, where he will attend the Benke-Walker business college. He expects to finish by next January.

Phonograph attention given to rental collections. Chiloets 1

Farmer Visits.

Dr. Van Carl of Poe Valley bought supplies from local merchants today.

See Lava Beds.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith and the latter's mother, Mrs. Moore, motored to the lava beds yesterday. Mr. Smith is a son of R. J. Smith, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, and will open a real estate office here soon. He is from New Jersey.

Returns From Canada.

D. B. Campbell, proprietor of Klamath Falls steam laundry and the local ice factory, returned yesterday from St. Thomas, Canada, where he attended the funeral of his brother, Mrs. J. S. Elliott, who also was at the funeral, will return later.

Dairy Is Downed.

The Dairy Cowboys lost a 14 to 10 baseball game yesterday at Dairy to a team from Klamath Falls collected by C. T. Oliver. Harlanbrook was in the box for Oliver's team, while Huff pitched for Dairy.

To Return Home.

J. E. Enders will leave tomorrow morning for his home in Ashland after a visit here with friends.

State Official Visits.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Chincock of Salem were in Klamath Falls last night. They are making an auto tour of Oregon. Mr. Chincock is superintendent of water division number one for the state of Oregon.

Old Man Dies.

Greatest Scientist in World is Dead

PROF. ELIE METCHNIKOFF

Professor Elie Metchnikoff, director of the Pasteur Institute in Paris, is dead at 71. All his family had died young, and it was his own belief that he would not live much beyond 54. It was then, however, that he began the investigation of longevity, which resulted in his discovery of the cause of long life among the Bulgarian mountaineers. By following his own method he prolonged his own life beyond that of his ancestors. For many years now he has been considered the foremost scientist of the world, with the possible exception of one or two British physiologists.
